ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. William Wormald announces the engagement of her daughter, Marian Newman, to Mr. Ellsworth Regenstein, the wedding to take place at home June 30th at 8 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. Bishop L. W. Burton officiating.

ALLEN—ARTHUR.

Mr. Harry S. Allen, aged 42, plumber, 12 East Ninth street, and Miss Florence E. Arthur, 11½ East Ninth street, Cincinnati, were married yesterday in this city by Rev. C. F. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South.

MEYERS—SCHAEFFER.

At 12 o'clock yesterday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Schaeffer in East Second street, their daughter, Miss Christine, became the wife of Mr. William Mont Meyers.

It was a pretty home wedding, attended by the families and a number of friends of the young couple. The Rev. Dr. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony.

Miss Schaeffer is one of Maysville's handsome and accomplished young ladies. Her dress was a lovely creation of pearl etamine over silk, particularly becoming to her.

Mr. Myers, whose home is at Greenup, is a valued employee of the C. and O. Railway. He was for some time located in this city but is now stationed at Dover, where he and his bride will be at home after July 1st.

The many rich and elegant presents received by the young couple attest the very high regard in which they are held.

Dinner served in courses followed the ceremony, and from 8 to 10 o'clock last evening a reception was given in honor of the bride and groom.

Among those to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Haldy of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Meyers and son, Frank, of Greenup, and Mrs. Achsah Branch and son Russell of the county.

HOLTON—HANNA.

Mr. James Holton and Miss Bettie A. Hanna of Dover were married in this city yesterday by Elder Houston of the Church of the Disciples, to which denomination both parties belong.

This union is the culmination of 25 years' courtship, and all friends of the parties shower congratulations and good wishes upon Mr. and Mrs. Holton.

The bride is a most lovable character. She has been identified with the Public School of Dover for two decades last past, and it is no mere set expression to say she is the epitomized embodiment of all the virtues which give beauty and attractiveness to woman.

Mr. Holton, for the past 15 years of his life, has been a prominent railroad contractor, and after a bridal trip to the World's Fair will settle with his wife in Dover, for a happy married life.

WELLS—CLINGER.

In the presence of their families and a few invited friends at 3 o'clock last afternoon occurred the marriage of Miss Ida Mae Clinger and Mr. Preston Degman Wells, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride at Dover by the Rev. Dr. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church.

The house had been most beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers, the handiwork of Mr. Percy Ambrose of Chicago.

Mrs. George Jones, sister of the bride, presided at the piano, and the ushers were Messrs. Charles McCarthy of Portsmouth and Albert Perrault of Minerva.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Nora, who was beautifully gowned in white silk crepe de Paris, with trimmings of point lace and ribbon.

Mr. Leslie Lewis of Lexington, formerly of this city, was best man.

The lovely bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Clinger, formerly of this city. She is a young lady of many personal charms, and deservedly popular among her friends. Her elegant bridal costume was of gray silk crepe de Paris, with hat to match, and her going-away dress of brown silk.

Mr. Wells, who is the son of Captain and Mrs. John E. Wells of Forest avenue, is one of Maysville's worthiest young men. He is a member of the Mason County Bar, and is also connected with the Internal Revenue service, and by all is most highly esteemed.

After warm congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Wells left at 4:20 for a ten days trip, including a visit to the St. Louis Exposition.

Returning they will be at home with the groom's parents in Forest avenue.

BISSET—BEST.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was witnessed last evening at the delightful country seat of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Best, four miles from Maysville.

Their charming daughter, Miss Elizabeth Best, was the happy bride, and Mr. Robert Bisset, a popular young gentleman of this city, was the lucky groom.

Several hundred of their friends were present, many of whom came from distant cities. The handsome home was tastefully decorated for the pleasant occasion, and as the guests arrived the Japanese lanterns in the yard gave evidence that some pleasure was to be enjoyed within.

The wide hall, the double parlors and the well-lighted rooms were filled with handsome men and lovely women when the sweet strains of piano and violin music skillfully executed by the Misses Rogers and the rich toned voice of Miss Florence Wadsworth announced the approach of the contracting parties. The hum of conversation immediately ceased and all eyes were directed towards the coming of the bridal parties.

The white ribbon separating the guests from the immediate family and relatives was untied, and the bridal party passed through the admiring audience to where Rev. Dr. Evans was in waiting. First came the groomsmen, Mr. Arthur Best and Mr. Hord Barnes, both of Millersburg; then Miss Edna Hunter of Washington and Miss Louise Best of Millersburg, the bridesmaids, and the groom Mr. Robert Bisset, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Gordon Solser, then the Maid of Honor, Miss Lulu Best, sister of the bride, carrying flowers, and lastly the bride, Miss Elizabeth Best, radiant with happiness, on the arm of her brother, Mr. Abner Best of Chicago. The party instantly grouped itself about Rev. Evans, the bride and groom assuming the center. It was a beautiful picture, and the impressive marriage ceremony fixed it indelibly in the minds of all who saw it. The contracting parties repeated their portion of the services in well modulated voices. At the conclusion the guests quickly came forward to extend hearty congratulations. Later refreshments were served in the dining room and greatly enjoyed.

About 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Bisset drove to the former's home in this city, leaving this morning on the C. and O. Flyer for a stay of about ten days at the World's Fair.

This wedding will long be remembered for its beauty, impressiveness and delightfulness. THE LEDGER extends congratulations and good wishes to the happy young couple.

Mr. Tom Wylie, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Wylie of Ripley, was married at Tiffin, O., Sunday last to Miss Edna Naylor.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, aided by the Pastors of the various Churches and a number of influential business men, is preparing to wage a war on the saloons of Mt. Sterling and secure a vote on local option. There are now eleven saloons in the city.

THE CARNIVAL COMPANY AND ITS SHOWS.

Among the many real Meritorious Shows now exhibiting in our city, is one located at corner Market and Second street called Darkness and Dawn—The Volcano. This show deserves more than passing comment. The scenic and electric spectacular presented here is one of the most beautiful and astounding pieces of work ever shown in this state. The transformations in the different scenes are indescribably grand and mystifying. The lecture given at each exhibition of Darkness and Dawn by a lady is also a masterpiece of eloquence and touching in its pathos. When such exhibitions as this come to our town give them a liberal patronage. Take your family to see the volcano.

Mr. Elmer Cooper, a nephew of Mrs. William Sprossberg of Commerce street, was married at Cadiz a few days ago to Miss Ora Wilson.

After arriving in Lexington the couple repaired to the Phoenix Hotel, where the ceremony was performed.

The wedding was a great surprise to the family and friends of the bride, none of whom knew of the intended marriage.

The saloon license in Maysville is $300 a year. There are 17 saloons. When the license was $150 a year, there were over 30 saloons. If the license was placed at $5 a year, how many saloons do you think there would be? Don't all answer at once.

The Police Judge in Louisville must believe in pauper labor. A few days ago he fined three Union strikers $15 each and put them under $300 bond to keep the peace. They had only exercised their inalienable right to "slug" some "scabs" who were working in the places they had vacated.

In Elizabethtown the City Council has raised the saloon licenses from $500 per year to $1,000, and the six saloons of the city will probably be reduced thereby to three or four. A similar action on the part of the Maysville Council would probably reduce the number of saloons here to a dozen; and yet some folks can't see where "high license" does any good.

If Governor BECKHAM would immortalize himself, he will call a special session of the Legislature; and then if the Legislature would earn the gratitude of the sensible people of Kentucky, it will amend the State Capitol Bill, so as to allow the Commission to choose a proper site for the new building. To tear away the historic old Capitol will be an outrage; to erect the new one on the site of the old will be a crime. May the Lord help the Governor—and hammer a few grains of sense into the legislators.

Political Pickings

UNION LABOR ORDINANCES.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

At the instance of Union Labor organizations the General Council of Lexington recently passed, with only one dissenting vote, an ordinance requiring that all contracts for supplies for the various city departments and all other such contracts be awarded only to persons or firms employing Union labor. This ordinance has been vetoed by the Mayor because of an opinion by City Solicitor Clay holding it to be unconstitutional, and the veto was sustained by the Council at a meeting Saturday night.

Mr. Clay, citing a list of cases, says that the Courts of the various states have with "singular unanimity" decided against the validity of such ordinances as this. He argues that it violates Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution, which reads—

"No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

The word "state," Mr. Clay says, has been held to include all municipal corporations created by the state. "Liberty has been construed to mean not simply freedom from restraint, but the right to labor, or to pursue one's calling or business upon terms of absolute equality with all others. 'Equal protection of the law' means not merely equal protection so far as personal security is concerned, but equal protection in all the rights and privileges of citizenship."

Any law, therefore, that abridges these privileges or interferes with these rights, is in violation of this constitutional provision.

He further holds that the ordinance violates Section 3 of the Kentucky Bill of Rights, which provides that "All men when they form a social compact are equal; and no grant of exclusive emoluments or privileges shall be made to any man or set of men, except in consideration of public services."

He argues also that "it is contrary to public policy, in that it is class legislation, discriminative in its character, and tends to stifle competition and create a monopoly."

In making this point he says very forcibly— "Manifestly, if the General Council has the right to restrict competition so far as the public supplies and public contracts are concerned to those who employ Union labor, it would have the same right to pass the same character of ordinance for the benefit of non-Union labor, if at any time the friends of non-Union labor should gain control of the General Council. And if at any time the majority of the members of the General Council should be members of the Presbyterian Church, or the Methodist Church, or the Baptist Church, or the Catholic Church, or of any other Church, or if the majority of them should belong to the Masons, or the Oddfellows, or the Elks, or any other Order, they would have the same right to pass a like ordinance for the benefit of those employing members of their particular Church, denomination or Order. The result would be that the laws of the city, instead of being enacted for the benefit of all the inhabitants of the municipality equally and impartially, would favor only that class of our citizens who happened to be in political power at the particular time."

The question here raised is one of some local interest, as only the other day an action was brought to test the validity of a similar Louisville ordinance.

"HEAP BIG SHOW!"

Yesterday Was a Dull One All
Along the LineParade Today, and Crowds For Balance of the Week

Our country cousins were not in evidence yesterday in such vast numbers as on opening day of the Carnival, yet the fun and hilarity continued just the same.

The Haymakers had the day all to themselves and what they lacked in numbers was fully made up in lung power and amusing antics.

It is at night that the Carnival is seen to the best advantage.

The streets are crowded with jolly souls out for a good time, and with the laughter and shouts of the sight-seers and the spellers at the various shows with their set speeches, there is enough going on to give variety and spice.

Today is Merchant's Day and it is expected that all wide-awake firms in the city will be represented in some manner.

It is said some very pretty floats will be in the parade, and with three bands in line there will be music galore.

The parade will be made up as follows:
Grand Marshal Klipp and Aids.
Olivette's Royal Italian Band.
Executive Committee.

City and County Officials in Decorated Carriages.
Outen's Band.

Decorated Floats Representing Leading Maysville Business Houses.

Form at Third and Plum streets and follow line of march as in Tuesday's parade.

The Maysville Assembly will entertain with a Ball at Neptune Hall tonight.

Mr. Willson January's health has greatly improved since his return to the city.

The Directors of the Maysville Warehouse Company will have a meeting this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Matters of importance will be discussed.

The Hymmakers Band visited the peaceful little village of Aberdeen across the river yesterday, and not since the memorable occasion during the Civil War when the young ladies of that town came over to this side and demanded the surrender of the city from Mayor Trussell, has there been such a commotion among its residents as did this grotesque musical organization create. After a parade of the town to the amusement of the populace they returned to this side.

"There Isn't One
Really Good
Printer in Five

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed, and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No printer in the country better our printing and we want you to know it.

IMMENSE TOW

The Powerful Sprague On Her Way to Pittsburgh With Empties

The largest tow of empty coal craft ever taken up the Ohio river by a single boat, and the largest towboat on the rivers of the Middle West, passed yesterday.

The boat which is handling this tow is the Sprague of the Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Mining Company.

In front of the boat are 24 coalboats, with a capacity of 26,000 bushels each, and 17 barges with a capacity of 13,000 bushels each when loaded, covering in all a space of about eight acres.

The craft is being taken from New Orleans to Pittsburgh for reloading and to be then shipped South again.

The Sprague is the largest boat ever built for use on a river. She is 321 feet long and is equipped with every convenience to be found on an ocean-going vessel.

On her last trip to New Orleans the Sprague towed 56 coalboats of 1,000 tons each. Their cargo is equal to 56 trainloads of 30 cars each.

There is some doubt among rivermen as to whether the Sprague can reach Pittsburgh on the present stage of water. She may be forced to go to the bank and wait for a rise.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green are hospitable entertainers, but they would like to know who their guests were at supper last evening. After their own regular evening meal they came down to the city to take in the sights. Returning later they were somewhat surprised to find the gasoline stove in the kitchen burning, and their dining room table set with dishes from which a couple had evidently enjoyed a supper, after cooking it. The parties were evidently of the many hoboes now guests of the city.

Christ did such work.

PUT TO THE TEST.

Maysville People Appreciate a Good Thing.

Everybody has their hour of trouble. But people having any itchininess of the skin Have many hours of trouble. Nothing so annoying. Nothing so irritating. Scratch it, it becomes worse; Leave it alone and you can hardly stand the misery. Itchininess comes in many forms—Eczema and horrid itching piles. Relief and cure are here at last. Doan's Ointment cures every form of itchininess of the skin. People at home are learning that this is so. Here is a proof in a citizen's statement. Mrs. Fannie Hunter of 446 Forest avenue says: "Doan's Ointment which I procured at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, proved to be invaluable. I wish its marvelous curative powers were known to every one who needs a cure for the troubles for which the use of Doan's Ointment is indicated." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the first week in June were $663,500, a decrease of $47,670 from the same week last year.
